Parish Vision Statement

We, the People of St. Edmund's Roman Catholic Parish, are, and desire to become, a more perfect Eucharistically Centered Faith Community. We seek to express our faith in a special way through the education of young people on both the elementary and secondary levels and through welcoming the unique contributions of people of different cultures, heritages and family structures.

Liturgy of the Hours: Week I of the Psalter Reflection on the Gospel

In today's gospel, Jesus invites all to choose a change in lifestyle. "Repentance," metanoia, is a change of mind and heart, a lifelong process of transformation, Jesus is not asking for the temporary foregoing of something pleasurable, like giving up chocolate for Lent. The metanoia to which Jesus invites us is both a turning away from whatever inhibits the full flourishing of the divine intent for creation and a turning toward the source of divine love. There is no better time to begin turning than now.
