Liturgy of the Hours: Week III of the Psalter Reflection on the Gospel

In today's gospel, Jesus performs a protest action in the temple. He quotes the prophet Zechariah, who spoke of an ideal day where there would no longer be traders in the house of God. (Zech 14:21). It may be that Jesus is challenging the attitudes of economic exchange that underlie sacrificial thinking: If we offer this sacrifice to God, then God will forgive our sins or bestow blessings. Repeatedly the Scriptures counter this tit-for-tat notion telling how God's love and gifts are offered unconditionally.
